

CAPABILITIES PANEL WEBINAR

TOPIC: THE CAPACITY TO ACHIEVE GOOD HEALTH AND SOURCES OF INEQUALITIES, APPLYING THE CAPABILITY APPROACH, IN THREE WEST AFRICAN COUNTRIES (SENEGAL, MALI AND BENIN).

SPEAKERS

CLAUDINE SAUVAIN-DUGERDIL
MODERATOR AND PANEL
COORDINATOR

MARION COSTE
PRESENTER

SAMBA DIARRA
PRESENTER

ALIHONOU S. ACHILLE TOKIN
PRESENTER

Agenda

- Introductory presentation of the concept of capabilities approach by Claudine Sauvain-Dugerdil, Honorary Professor (emeritus) at IDESO (Institute of Demography and Socio-economics, University of Geneva, Switzerland)
- Paper 1: Promoting health capabilities: a structural equation model applied to rural Senegal, Marion COSTE, PhD student in economics, Aix Marseille Univ., CNRS, INSERM, IRD.
- Communication 2: Access of pregnant women to intermittent preventive treatment against malaria in the light of the capability approach in Mali, Dr. Samba DIARRA, Departement of teaching and research in public health, Université des Sciences, Techniques et des Technologies de Bamako (USTTB).
- Paper 3: Rethinking the reproductive freedom of young women in Djougou (Benin), Alihonou S. Achille TOKIN, PhD student in demography, University of Parakou, Benin
- Comments and questions/discussions

20 JANUARY 2023
2:00 PM (GMT)

CLICK TO JOIN

All oral presentations will be in French but slides will be provided in English.